OP-009

DIRECTOR OF NAVAL INTELLIGENCE

Mission: To implement the responsibilities of the Chief of Naval Operations with regard to intelligence, cryptology (less Signals Security), security, counterintelligence (including counterterrorism), law enforcement, and investigative matters; to serve as the principal staff advisor to the Secretary of the Navy and the Chief of Naval Operations in related plans, programming, and policy matters; to represent the Department of the Navy on the National Foreign Intelligence Board and with other agencies in intelligence matters; and to advise and assist officials of the Department of the Navy in matters of protocol and liaison with foreign officials.

Functions:

1. Advises and assists the CNO in exercising command responsibilities over the Naval Intelligence Command, the Naval Security Group Command and the Naval Investigative Service.
2. Formulates policy with regard to law enforcement, counterintelligence (including counterterrorism), physical security, and investigative matters within the DON.
3. Formulates policy with regard to a multidiscipline security program and acts as the officer primarily responsible to the CNO for the protection of classified material in the Navy including the disclosure of intelligence information to foreign governments; assists in monitoring security standards for selected special contracts; and provides guidance concerning and monitors the security review of Navy information proposed for public release.
4. Provides intelligence staff support to the SECNAV, CNO, VCNO, DCNOs, and DMSOs.
5. Participates in the formulation, coordination, and evaluation of national, joint, and naval intelligence estimates.
6. Formulates policy with regard to the control, protection, dissemination and use of special intelligence and special activities materials within the Department of the Navy.
7. Exercises overall responsibility and authority within the Navy in matters pertaining to intelligence requirements, collection, production, and dissemination; formulates and coordinates related policy, and advises concerning intelligence equipment, doctrine, and techniques.
8. Exercises overall coordination and direction in matters pertaining to undersea warfare intelligence and collaborates in the conduct of related special programs with the DCNO (Submarine Warfare) (OP-02).

APR 7 1987

9. Ensures that intelligence and cryptologic requirements of the operational commanders are met and that Navy intelligence and cryptologic systems are compatible with and, as required, integrated into naval command and control architecture.

10. Validates requirements for research, development, test, and evaluation (RDT&E) of systems, equipment, and techniques relating to intelligence, cryptology, counterintelligence (including counterterrorism), law enforcement, security, and investigations within the Navy, other than those related to command and control information flow and tactical support, which are the validation responsibility of the Director, Command and Control (OP-094).

11. Assumes OPNAV program sponsorship of validated intelligence and cryptologic requirements, including those in the area of responsibility and validated by OP-094, and coordinates and collaborates with the Director, RDT&E (OP-098) in ensuring the satisfaction of these requirements.

12. Coordinates program development for various programs of mutual interest with OP-094, the Director, Naval Warfare (OP-095) and other appropriate offices of the DON and the DOD.

13. Exercises cognizance over Navy portions of the General Defense Intelligence Program (GDIP), the Consolidated Cryptologic Program (CSP), the Tactical Cryptologic Program (TCP), and Program VIII cryptologic training resources; and ensures that the programs under DNI cognizance receive proper visibility and consideration at all levels of program development and review.

14. Provides principal point of contact for liaison with foreign officials accredited to the DON and advises and assists on matters relating to protocol and official foreign visitors.

15. Participates, as representative of the DON, in the deliberations and activities of the National Foreign Intelligence Board; and participates, as appropriate, in other interdepartmental, DOD, and joint service committees.

16. Determines the effectiveness and responsiveness of intelligence, cryptologic, counterintelligence (including counterterrorism), law enforcement, and security activities to meet current, contingency and mobilization requirements of the Navy and collaborates on actions to correct deficiencies.

17. Collaborates with the Chief of Naval Personnel in establishing training, career development, and maintenance of readiness programs relating to the intelligence, cryptologic, counterintelligence (including counterterrorism), law enforcement, security, and criminal investigative matters within the Navy.

18. Acts as the primary point of contact with the Defense Intelligence Agency, Central Intelligence Agency, National Security Agency, Federal Bureau of Investigation, Department of State (Intelligence and Research), the service intelligence agencies and other foreign and domestic agencies, as appropriate, on intelligence, cryptologic, counterintelligence (including counterterrorism), law enforcement, security, and criminal investigative matters; and serves as the single point of contact within the Navy for coordinating the forwarding of Navy intelligence and cryptologic requirements and for maintaining liaison to ensure their satisfaction.

19. Serves as program sponsor for the Naval Intelligence Processing System.

20. Formulates policy and exercises management of the Ocean Surveillance Information System (OSIS), coordinates and validates all intelligence requirements for further development of OSIS capabilities; and supports the OPNAV OSIS program sponsor in planning and programming actions to fulfill these requirements.

21. Acts as the Senior Intelligence Officer of the DON.
